

Nitta Gelatin India Limited

POLICY ON RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

(Approved by the Board of Directors in their meeting held on)

POLICY FOR RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

I. PREAMBLE

The Companies Act, 2013 (Act) read with the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 (Rules) introduced specific provisions relating to related party transactions and defined the term related parties, (material) related party transactions, relatives and key management personnel. The Act and the Rules have also laid down the financial limits and the approval process for such transactions.

In addition, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) reviewed the provisions of the Listing Agreement vis-a-vis the Companies Act, 2013 and with the objectives to align with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, adopt best practices on corporate governance and to make the corporate governance framework more effective, revised Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement.

Pursuant to the revised Clause 49 VII C of the Listing Agreement (Clause 49), all the listed companies need to formulate a policy on materiality of related party transactions and also a policy on dealing with related party transactions.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors (Board) of Nitta Gelatin India Limited (Company or NGIL) has adopted a policy and a standard operating procedure to regulate transactions between the Company and its Related Parties, in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Act, the Rules and the Listing Agreement.

This Policy was considered and approved by the Board at its Meeting held on to be effective from 1st October, 2014.

II. OBJECTIVE

In its endeavour to ensure due and proper compliance with the applicable provisions and to ensure that proper procedure is defined and followed for approval / ratification and reporting of transactions as applicable, between the Company and any of its Related Parties, this policy has been adopted by the Company's Board of Directors. The provisions of this policy are designed to govern the transparency of approval process and disclosure requirements to ensure fairness in the conduct of related party transactions, in terms of the applicable laws.

The Policy and procedures have been designed to achieve due and timely compliance with the statutory requirements governing related party transactions by ensuring that:

- i. Related Parties are identified;
- ii. Related Party Transactions are evaluated;
- iii. Necessary approvals are obtained;
- iv. Related Party Transactions are recorded; and
- v. Proper disclosures of the Policy and the Related Party Transactions are made including disclosure of all transactions in the Annual Financial Statements.

III. SCOPE

This Policy is applicable to all related party transactions across all business units of NGIL in India.

IV. DEFINITIONS & EXPLANATIONS (Please refer to Annexure - A)

V. POLICY

A. Audit Committee approval

All Related Party Transactions and any subsequent modifications thereto, shall require the prior approval of the Audit Committee.

B. Board of Directors approval

All Related Party Transactions that are:

- not in the ordinary course of business, or
 - in the ordinary course of business but not at arms' length or
 - neither in the ordinary course of business nor at arms' length
- shall require the prior approval of the Board of Directors at a Meeting of the Board.

C. Shareholders' approval

- (i) Under Clause – 49

All Material Related Party Transactions shall require prior Shareholders' approval, through a Special Resolution passed at a General Meeting. All Related Parties (irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not) shall abstain from voting on such resolution.

ii) Under the Act

In case the value of transactions to be entered into with the related party exceed the limits specified under Rule 15(3) of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 (Refer Annexure – XII (b) such transactions shall be entered into only with the prior approval of the Company by a special resolution.

No member of the Company shall vote on such special resolution, to approve any contract which may be entered into by the Company, if such member is a related party.

D. Identification or Potential Related Party Transactions

Each director and Key Managerial Personnel is responsible for providing advance notice to the Board or Audit Committee of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him or her or his or her Relative, including any additional information about the transaction that the Board /Audit Committee may reasonably request. Board / Audit Committee will determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this policy.

E. Process for approval

1. All Related Party Transactions shall be referred to the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Audit Committee for review and approval.
2. The Audit Committee will determine, in line with this Policy, whether the transaction submitted to it does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction, requiring compliance under this Policy.
3. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions
 - i. Any Director, who is interested in any Related Party Transaction, shall recuse him-self or herself from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.
 - ii. To review a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee will be provided with all relevant material information of the Related Party Transaction such as the comparative price at which such transactions are carried on by third parties under comparable situations and any such other information reasonably required to decide whether such transaction is a Related Party Transaction or not including any additional information about the transaction that the Audit Committee may reasonably request.

- iii. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee may consider giving omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to the following conditions:
- a) The Audit Committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with this Policy and such approval shall be applicable in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature.
 - b) The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company;
 - c) Such omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of the transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;
 - d) Provided that where the need for Related Party Transactions cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs.1 crore per transaction.
 - e) The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of the Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given.
 - f) Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.
- iv. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction the Committee will consider, inter alia, the following factors to approve a Related Party Transaction:
- a. Whether the terms and conditions of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on an Arms' Length basis to the Company and are in the ordinary course of business of the Company;
 - b. Whether there are compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction as against the normal transactions;
 - c. Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of an independent director;

- d. Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of, or in connection with, the proposed transaction;
- e. Whether the Related Party Transaction would amount to a conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, nature of direct or indirect interest of directors, Key Managerial Personnel or other Related Party in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and such other aspects as may be deemed relevant to the Committee;
- f. If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board or if the Board itself elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for the Board to approve such Related Party Transaction, then the criteria set out above shall also apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter with such modifications as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.
- v. If the Board determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Shareholders or it is mandatory under any law for the Shareholders to approve such Related Party Transaction, then the Chairman of the Board will ensure obtaining requisite approval of the Shareholders. Shareholder(s) who are Related Parties will abstain from voting on such resolution.
- vi. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Related Party Transactions shall not require approval of the Audit Committee or Shareholders:
 - a. Any transaction in which the Related Party's interest arises solely from ownership of securities issued by the Company and all holders of such securities receive the same benefits pro rata as the Related Party.
 - b. Any transaction entered into between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
 - c. Any transaction that involves the providing of compensation to a Director or Key Managerial Personnel in connection with his or her duties to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or associates, including the reimbursement of reasonable business and travel expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business.

VI. REVIEW BY THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

This Policy shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee on an annual or periodic basis and if required, changes shall be made in the light of the latest requirement and applicable legislation. The said recommendations of the Audit Committee shall be presented to the Board for approval.

VII. VIOLATION OF THE POLICY

In the event the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the same shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee / Board as follows:

The Audit Committee or Board or Shareholders, as the case may be, will consider all the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification of the contract or arrangement, whether ratification should be allowed and if ratified whether it would be beneficial or detrimental to the Company, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction including the facts and circumstances of failure to obtain approval / report such Related Party Transaction to the Audit Committee or the Board or Shareholders under this Policy and take such action as deemed appropriate. In case, such contract or arrangement is not so ratified, such contract or arrangement shall be voidable at the option of the Board.

VIII. AMENDMENTS TO THE POLICY

The Board of Directors on its own and / or as per the recommendations of Audit Committee can amend this Policy, as and when deemed fit. Any or all provisions of this Policy would be subject to revision / amendment in accordance with the Rules, Regulations, Notifications etc. on the subject as may be issued by relevant statutory authorities, from time to time.

In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. issued by the relevant authorities, not being consistent with the provisions laid down under this Policy, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc, shall prevail upon the provisions hereunder and this Policy shall stand amended accordingly from the effective date as laid down under such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc.

IX. DISCLOSURE OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

1. All contracts or arrangements which require Board approval shall be referred to in the Board's report to the shareholders along with the justification for entering into such contract or arrangement.
2. The Explanatory Statement annexed to the Notice convening General Meeting for seeking the Shareholders' approval for the Related Party Transaction shall contain the following details:
 - Name of the Related Party;
 - Name of the Director or Key Managerial Personnel, who is related, if any;
 - Nature of relationship;
 - Nature, material terms, monetary value and particulars of contract or arrangement;
 - Other relevant or important information which helps Shareholders take a decision
3. Details of all material transactions with Related Parties should be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges on quarterly basis along with the Corporate Governance Compliance Report.
4. The Policy on dealing with Related Party Transactions shall be uploaded on the Company's website and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report.
6. This Policy will be communicated to all operational employees and other concerned persons of the Company.
